

Casting Sheet

Think of yourself as the director of a leadership story. You get to “cast” your leadership play! Think about 3 to 4 characters who you identify with and cast them in your show. These could be characters or real people throughout time; they could be important people from history or even someone living today.

Who would you cast? Place their name in this column.	What kind of leader are they? List their leadership style.	Why did you pick them? Explain your choice.
